Fall 2011 Chamber Music Placement Auditions

This September will mark the start of what I trust will be a wonderful experience for you at Longy; the opportunity to develop alongside supportive and dedicated fellow students and to study with an outstanding and committed faculty will hopefully be one of the most important events in your musical and artistic life. With its emphasis on close, supportive, and thoughtful collaboration, the chamber music model informs everything we do at Longy.

Since Longy's founding nearly one hundred years ago by Boston Symphony oboist Georges Longy, chamber music has played a central and important role. As the newest members of the Longy community, you soon will become part of this rich and vital tradition. I look forward to welcoming you in the fall and getting to know you, musically and personally.

~ Wayman Chin, Dean of the Conservatory and Chair of Chamber Music

All incoming instrumentalists are expected to have a placement audition for chamber music, whether or not their curricular program requires ensemble participation during the fall semester or for the academic year. Auditions will be held during the Orientation period, which will begin on Thursday, August 30th. Chamber music coaching occurs on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 3 PM to 5 PM. Students enrolled in conservatory chamber music ensembles are expected to keep these six hours free until their coaching assignment and coaching time is determined. (Groups arrange their own rehearsal schedule.)
